Wishing you all a wonderful, relaxing weekend.

Kind regards, Kathie Daniels

District Sports Day

On Thursday Mrs Lascaris, Mr Scrivens, Mrs Manship and Mrs Dale had the huge pleasure of taking 36 of our top athletes to compete in the Esher District Sports competition at Xcel Sports Hub in Walton. All of the athletes were superb ambassadors for the school. Their behaviour and attitude encapsulated all of our 6R's values.

Year 3: Willow, Yasmin, Millie, Arthur, Oscar, Jacob

Year 4: Leila, Joselyn, Heidi, Amy, Annabel, Josh, Harry, Sam, Dylan, Josh

Year 5: Millie, Ivy, Eva, Emily, Annabel, Charlie, Caden, Hoagy, Max, Jack, Hadley, Pietro

Year 6: Lexie, Niamh, Holly, Ava, Aran, Jude, James, Billy

On the track we had Lexie (Y6), Millie (Y5), Leila (Y4) and Willow (Y3) who all qualified for the girls sprint semi finals and for the boys Jude (Y6), Charlie (Y5), Josh (Y4) and Oscar (Y3). Special congratulations to Charlie J who achieved a bronze medal in the 80m sprint final.

Our relays teams also did really well with Y5/6 girls, Y3/4 girls and Y5/6 boys qualifying for semi finals. In the very hot and very fast finals the Y3/4 girls relay team got bronze medals. Congratulations to Leila, Willow, Yasmin and Joselyn.

Holly performed particularly well achieving an impressive gold medal in the 600 metres long distance. In the field, some awesome performances were also achieved by:

- Max who got a GOLD medal for ball throw.
- Annabel achieved a SILVER medal in the high jump.
- Niamh achieved a SILVER medal in the ball throw.

We were pleased to see so many parents there supporting from the stands. Many thanks also to 'Coach' Wedell for helping Mrs Lascaris and Mr Scrivens with training on Thursday lunchtimes (even though it was her day off).

We are so proud of you all and congratulate you on being the perfect competitors in our eyes- you were a great support to each other, great ambassadors for our wonderful school and were determined to achieve your very best against some fierce competition!

Well done to you all!

My thanks to Mrs Lascaris, Mr Scrivens and all of our helpers and supporters!

South African Project—Fundraising update

Thank you to everyone who returned the water bottles with money inside for the children at Reed's School who are raising money for their South African Project. Rob, an ex-Cranmere pupil, has asked us to pass on his thanks. Cranmere pupils raised over £400 for the trip which will go a long way to helping the children.

Assemblies this week:

⇒ Heathy Living, Sporting Aspirations, Eat Well and Pabulum (Sugar).

Bulletin Board

New on the board this week are the details about Cobham Fencing Club. Also details of Clubland's extended summer playscheme and booking form. For more information please click on the link.

School Lunches

From September, school lunches will cost £2.30 per meal. These must be paid in advance either on a weekly or half termly basis. This equates to £11.50 per week or £85.10 for the first half of autumn term.

Also we would like to remind parents with children going into Y3, if you haven't done so already, please return the school lunch form telling us if your child will be having school lunches in September or packed lunches. We need this information by the end of term. Thank you.

Teacher Led Clubs—Reminder

Please note that all Teacher Led Clubs have now finished for the summer term. Teacher Led Clubs for the Autumn term will be published on our return after the summer holiday.

Letters Home

⇒ Y1 Circus Skills

Thank you to everyone who helped at film club. We hope all the children enjoyed it and we will be back with more next year !

What an amazing sports day. We hope everyone managed to take advantage of the water and shade provided by the friends.

It may feel a little bit early to mention Christmas given how hot it is but the time has come to start planning the Christmas Fair. If you want to get involved please come to our planning meeting on the 17 July 8pm at the Marquis of Granby.
